Kenſington, June 10.

THE following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmorland, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Lonſdale, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmorland, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the extraordinary Succeſs with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs your Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt a ſavage Hoſt of Rebels, and an audacious Pretender, whoſe Claim we have ſolemnly abjured, whoſe Cauſe we utterly abhor.

When we reflect that his Royal Highneſs's expeditious and tremendous Advance on the unnatural Rebels in this County, averted from us the Fire and Sword, the Ruin and Deſolation, which they had violently threatened; when we recollect their Rapine, Tyranny and Oppreſſion, in every Place of their Traverſes, and at the ſame Time review your Majeſty's glorious Defeat of their impious Attempts againſt your Crown and the Conſtitution; it is with Hearts full of the greateſt Duty and Gratitude we acknowledge your Royal Perfections in forming and purſuing thoſe Schemes, which have preſerved to us every Thing dear, and delivered us from every Thing dreadful to a free People. We are happy, and we know ourſelves to be happy, under a gracious Sovereign, who guards his Subjects with Vigilance, governs them with Wiſdom, endears them with Mildneſs, and protects them with Fortitude.

Permit us, Sacred Sir, on this joyful Occaſion, to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for your Wiſdom in appointing your Royal Son the Commander of your Forces, and for your Goodneſs and Greatneſs of Mind, in expoſing him to a Complication of Perils for the Preſervation of Religion, Law, Liberty, and Great Britain. His eminent Military Virtues render him equal to ſo important a Truſt, and he has ſignally diſtinguiſhed himſelf to be a wiſe and a brave General; indefatigable in Toil, and intrepid in Danger; prudent in concerting the Meaſures of War, and ſteady in executing them. Thus the young Hero, in the Day of the late Battle, warm in his Courage, and cool in his Conduct, made all Oppoſition fall before him, and gained a compleat Victory, that will ſhed over your Majeſty's Reign a laſting Glory, and diffuſe to your faithful People a ſolid Happineſs.

As we have the cleareſt Views of an inſeperable Connection betwixt our own Happineſs and the firm Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, Duty and Affection to your Majeſty will always unite with the Dictates of Self-Love, to engage us in the moſt fervent Prayers to Almighty God, for the beſt Bleſſings upon your Majeſty, and every Branch of your illuſtrious Family.

We are, with the moſt profound Submiſſion,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt devoted, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Southampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts full of Loyalty and D[illegible]
we moſt humbly beg Leave to con[illegible]

late your Majeſty upon the happy and glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in cruſhing the late wicked and unnatural Rebellion, formed againſt your Majeſty, and our Conſtitution.

We have a grateful Senſe of the Conduct and Valour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, and of your Majeſty's faithful and couragious Troops under his Command, in this ſignal and ever memorable Victory. And (with Thankfulneſs to God, and under his Almighty Protection) we cannot but hope your Majeſty and your Kingdom ſafe from the malicious and deſtructive Views and Enterprizes of deteſtable and inſolent Rebels, encouraged by your Majeſty's Enemies Abroad, and by the Abettors of popiſh Superſtition and arbitrary Power at Home.

As upon the firſt Notice of this wicked Rebellion, we teſtified our Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty, by a moſt unanimous Aſſociation, and a chearful and voluntary Subſcription, for raiſing Forces for the Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: So we do aſſure your Majeſty of our conſtant and utmoſt Endeavours to deſerve your Majeſty's future Protection, by a ſteady Perſeverance in our Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and in our Prayers to God for the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, and the Succeſſion thereof in your Royal Family.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Reading in the County of Berks, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, do moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty upon that glorious Succeſs with which your Councils and Arms have been ſo ſignally bleſſed.

Your Royal Army, animated by the Juſtice of your Cauſe, and inſpired by the Preſence and gallant Behaviour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, have, we are perſuaded, totally extinguiſhed the moſt horrid and unnatural Rebellion in Scotland, and thereby effectually diſappointed the deteſted Views of the Houſe of Bourbon, in Favour of an abjured Pretender, bred up in Superſtition, and a Fondneſs of arbitrary Power.

May thoſe amiable Virtues in your Majeſty, which adorn your Crown, attract the Hearts of all your Subjects, and engage them unanimouſly to join their beſt Endeavours in ſupporting (what we are ſure your Majeſty will eſteem the chief Glory of your Reign) the Peace and Proſperity of theſe Kingdoms; and after a long and happy Reign over us, may you tranſmit to your Royal Heirs, together with your own Virtues, the peaceable Government of a truly loyal People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty ninth Day of May 1746.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Albans in the County of Hertford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Saint Albans in the County of Hertford, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, to congratulate your Majeſty on the glorious Succeſs of your Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, in the total Defeat of your unnatural and rebellious Subjects, ſpirited up and ſupported by the moſt inveterate Enemies of this Kingdom.

It gives us infinite Pleaſure to ſee our illuſtrious Hero, ſo early and ſo greatly diſtinguiſh himſelf in the Cauſe of Religion and Liberty; and it affords us a pleaſing Proſpect of future Happineſs, that the ſame princely Qualities (which have ſo much endeared your Majeſty to your Subjects) ſhine forth ſo conſpicuouſly in his Royal Highneſs.

Permit us, Sir, to return our moſt hearty Thanks to your Majeſty, for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your juſt and mild Government; and to add our ſincere Wiſhes for your Majeſty's Health, and the perpetual Eſtabliſhment of theſe Kingdoms in your illuſtrious Houſe.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commons of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Lancaſter in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commons of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Lancaſter in Common Council aſſembled, with Thanks to the Almighty, and Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, againſt the Rebels in Scotland, aſſiſted by the natural Enemies of Great Britain. This Battle will ſet the Greatneſs of his Royal Highneſs's Valour and Conduct in its true Luſtre.

We, in a particular Manner, humbly approach your Majeſty with the utmoſt Senſe of Gratitude, in appointing the Illuſtrious Britiſh Hero to command your Majeſty's Forces, which, animated by his Preſence, Prudence and Courage, diſſipated our Fears, when labouring under the moſt diſmal Apprehenſions of loſing all that was dear and valuable to us, our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, which we happily enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government and Protection.

We and all your faithful and loyal Subjects ſhall ever acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Care over us; and we ſhall daily and devoutly pray to the King of Kings, for your Majeſty's long Life, happy and glorious Reign, and for your Royal Poſterity to ſucceed after you for ever.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Seal of the ſaid Corporation to be hereunto affixed this 26th Day of May 1746.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Succeſs of your Arms, in the Defeat of the Rebels, under the prudent and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

When we conſider the many Benefits and Advantages your Majeſty's Subjects reap under your mild and gentle Adminiſtration, and the Rights and Privileges which we continue to enjoy, we cannot but hold in the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation, the wicked Authors and Abettors of this unnatural Rebellion, intended to deprive us of the beſt of Kings, and utterly to deſtroy our Religious and Civil Liberties.

May the ſame Providence, which hath hitherto ſo viſibly preſerved your Majeſty, continue to bleſs your Arms and Councils.

May nothing ever ſhake your Majeſty's Throne, or give Hopes to the Enemies of our Country, that we will ever depart from our Loyalty to your Majeſty and to your Family, to the lateſt Generations.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough this 29th Day of May 1746, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved otherwiſe Launceſton, in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Erby, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved otherwiſe Launceſton in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

THE great Troubles and Misfortunes that have attended this Nation, occaſioned by a Sett of People, inſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and back'd by the known and avow'd Enemy of your Majeſty, and theſe your Dominions, filled the Hearts of us and all your faithful faithful Subjects with the utmoſt Concern; nor were we leſs grieved to hear of their Succeſs.

On this unhappy Occaſion, your Majeſty's ſending his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland was a remarkable Inſtance of your Majeſty's great Regard and Care for the Welfare of your Subjects: And it was with the utmoſt Pleaſure we received the Account, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke, at the Head of your Majeſty's Forces, had put an End to the Outrages of thoſe rebellious and deſperate Sett of People, and that with little Bloodſhed, except to thoſe who were the firſt Authors of this unnatural Rebellion.

As ſuch a Tranſaction as this cannot but render his Royal Highneſs dear to all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects; ſo will it record his Name to all Poſterity, and teach your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad, that a free People are not to be govern'd by Popery and Arbitrary Power.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, on this happy Event, to join with the reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects in our moſt ſincere Congratulations, and to add our Prayers for your Majeſty's Welfare, and that your Reign over this Nation may be long and proſperous.

Given under our Common Seal the 25th Day of May 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Counſellors of the Borough of Selkirk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Murray, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Counſellors of the Borough of Selkirk in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Counſellors of the Borough of Selkirk in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon with our moſt ſincere and hearty Congratulations upon the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms; which, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, has defeated the Rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects.

Permit us, Sir, to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for the Appointment of his Royal Highneſs the Duke to this important Service; whoſe Conduct and Bravery, ſo early conſpicuous, have, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty, produced this our happy Deliverance; a Glory reſerved for one of your illuſtrious Family, endowed with thoſe Princely Qualities, which render him amiable to thoſe under his Command, and formidable to his Enemies.

As Diſgrace and Ruin have fallen on the Heads of thoſe wicked Perſons who have been Confederates in this abhorred and deteſted Rebellion, for the Subverſion of our happy Conſtitution, and depriving us of all that is dear and valuable to us; ſo (we truſt) that by Divine Providence, from their Diſappointment and Deſtruction, Stability will redound to your Majeſty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Perſon and Family, and Glory to your Government, over a free and happy People.

May a Series of Succeſs attend your Majeſty's Arms, until Tranquillity be reſtored to Europe, and your Subjects firmly eſtabliſhed in the Poſſeſſion of their juſt Rights of Trade and Navigation.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of the Town Council, by Andrew Scott and John Douglaſs, preſent Magiſtrates of Selkirk, at Selkirk, the 22d Day of May, 1746.

Andrew Scott.
John Douglaſs.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Bacon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient Borough of King's Lynn, beg Leave, upon this happy Occaſion, to approach your Throne, and moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious Succeſs of your Arms in Scotland, which, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, have in one Day, and by one deciſive Blow, totally defeated the traiterous Attempts of your rebellious Subjects, and diſappointed the dangerous Deſigns, formed by our old and inveterate Enemies, to ſubvert the Britiſh Conſtitution, which has long been the Envy of all ſuch, whoſe Misfortune it is to live under an arbitrary Government. As its Power long has been, and, we truſt in God, ever will be formidable to the reſtleſs Ambition of thoſe Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe, who, being themſelves utter Strangers to the Sweets of Liberty, ſeem reſolved to leave no Means unattempted tempted to extend their Monarch's Sway, and reduce all their Neighbours to their own abject State of Slavery, and Dependance on the lawleſs Will and Pleaſure of a deſpotick Prince.

It is with the utmoſt Joy we have lately ſeen theſe Clouds diſpelled, which for ſome Time hung over a great Part of theſe your Majeſty's Dominions, and threatened Deſtruction to all that is valuable to us. When we thought ourſelves in Danger of loſing the Bleſſings of Peace and Quiet at Home, which we have without Interruption enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, your Majeſty's paternal Care for your Subjects ſoon delivered us from our Fears, by ſending a Prince of your Royal Family to head your Troops, who, led on by ſuch a General, animated by ſuch an Example, and fighting in the Cauſe of Liberty, have brought Ruin upon thoſe who, by an horrid Rebellion, ſought the Downfall of their Country.

As by Divine Providence this wicked and daring Attempt has ended in the utter Confuſion of thoſe deluded Men who raſhly engag'd in it; we doubt not but by this Event your Majeſty's Throne will be more firmly eſtabliſhed, as it muſt have effectually convinced our foreign and domeſtick Enemies, that your Majeſty reigns in the Hearts and Affections of your faithful Subjects, againſt whom, while united, they know they never can prevail.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; may the like Succeſs ever attend your Arms and Councils; and, in Conſequence thereof, may a firm and laſting Peace be reſtored to Europe, and Trade and Proſperity ſecured to this Nation; and may our Poſterity never want one of your Royal Houſe to ſit on the Throne of theſe Realms, and to tranſmit to diſtant Ages the Enjoyment of thoſe invaluable Privileges, our Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

Sealed with our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the Borough aforeſaid, this Twenty ninth Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough and Corporation of Preſton in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Nicholas Fazakerley, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Faucoonberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough and Corporation of Preſton in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough and Corporation of Preſton in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, with our ſincere and hearty Congratulations for the happy Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, under the valiant and wiſe Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, in the late glorious and compleat Victory obtained over your Majeſty's Rebellious and unnatural Subjects in North Britain.

As the Ruin with which every Thing was threatened, that deſerves the Attention and Eſteem of Engliſhmen, as Proteſtants and a free People, our Religion, Liberties and Laws, could not but alarm us with the deepeſt Senſe of Danger, and raiſe in us a thorough Abhorrence and Deteſtation of this inſolent Attempt of our Enemies, to bereave us of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, depending on the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; ſo every Engliſh Heart muſt be warmed with a true Gratitude and Thankfulneſs for our Deliverance from it.

Your Majeſty has been ever ambitious to give your faithful Subjects the ſtrongeſt Proofs of a paternal Care and Concern for their Happineſs and Welfare. But a greater Inſtance of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Regard for your People could not be given, than in appointing his Royal Highneſs the Duke to command and animate your Majeſty's Army on this important Occaſion: A Prince deſcended of a Family, which, for Ages paſt, has made it its chief Glory to ſtand up in Defence of true Religion and Liberty, againſt the aſpiring Views and enſlaving Attempts of France, and the Bigottry and Superſtition of Rome.

This ſeaſonable Victory has already evinced its great Importance and Influence, by the Manner in which the Account of it was received in ſeveral Nations Abroad: And it alſo opens to us a glorious and pleaſing Proſpect, not only of ſeeing the Rebellion, ſo deſtructive of the Peace and Trade of this Nation, ſpeedily and totally ſuppreſſed; but of having our happy Conſtitution, in Church and State, ſtill more firmly eſtabliſhed, and the Crown of theſe Realms continued in your Majeſty's Royal Houſe to lateſt Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twenty fourth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Wright, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon in the County of Berks, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Abingdon, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, have obtained againſt the Rebels in Scotland; a Succeſs purchaſed without any other Expence of Blood than what was drawn from thoſe whoſe Wickedneſs had rendred them unfit to live. If Rapine, Oppreſſion and Murder have always been reckoned amongſt the greateſt Crimes, what Deteſtation ought Rebellion to meet with, which not only includes all theſe, but alſo tends to deſtroy our Religion, and overturn the Liberties of the Nation.

We have learnt from Experience, that the Perſons engaged in this Rebellion can never be reformed: The Bigottry of their Leaders, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, and the ſlaviſh Dependance of the meaner Sort upon their Chiefs, makes them ever ready to take up Arms, and to break through all the Obligations of Duty to their Country, and of Gratitude to your Majeſty, who have, with the greateſt Juſtice and Reſolution, ſupported the Rights of your Subjects, and of all Europe.

The Share which the inveterate Enemies of this Nation had in the Rebellion, is ſufficient to convince us, that they eſteem your Majeſty the great Protector of the Liberties of Europe, and that they deſpair of compaſſing their Schemes of Univerſal Monarchy, whilſt your Majeſty is able to give them Oppoſition. We therefore adore the Goodneſs of God, who hath raiſed out of your Majeſty's own Houſe one to fight againſt your foreign and domeſtick Enemies. His Royal Highneſs the Duke, by his unexampled Courage and Conduct, hath defeated them, at a Time when they were moſt formidable to your Majeſty's Subjects, and moſt confident in themſelves. May he continue to be victorious till your Majeſty and this Nation ſhall have no more Enemies; and may your Majeſty long reign in the Love and Affection of your People.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of and in the ſaid Borough, this Twenty eighth Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty ſix.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Shrewsbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Herbert, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Shrewsbury, beg Leave to join in the general Acclamations of Joy, for the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms.

The wicked Deſigns of the Rebels, and the deluſive Hopes of a popiſh Pretender, are at once blaſted, by the Bleſſing of Divine Providence on your Majeſty's Councils, and the wiſe and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland; whoſe hereditary Virtues, as they are a Terror to his Enemies, ſo they are a ſure Preſage to your loyal Subjects of laſting Happineſs, under the auſpicious Reign of your illuſtrious Family; and that Senſe of Gratitude, which both Houſes of Parliament have ſo lately ſhew'd for his invaluable Services, is the more pleaſing to us, as it is expreſſive of our own.

By this the Vaſſals of Rome, and the Slaves of France, may clearly ſee, how highly we eſteem the Bleſſings we enjoy, and be convinced, that none ſhall diſturb our Peace with Impunity, nor ſhake the Loyalty of the happieſt People to the beſt of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal the 31ſt Day of May 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Burgh of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Colonel Fitzroy, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which

Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the Burgh of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN this Day of general Jubilee, when the Hearts of all your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects overflow with the moſt dutiful Sentiments of Joy and Gratitude; permit your ancient and loyal Corporation of Thetford, humbly to approach your ſacred Throne, and to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious Succeſs of the Britiſh Arms in Scotland, under the auſpicious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs William Duke of Cumberland; a Hero! whom Providence, in this Exigence, has vouchſafed to raiſe us up, as well to confound a Sett of deluded Miſcreants engaged in actual Rebellion at Home, as the infernal Machinations of Popery and Arbitrary Power Abroad, which were the Source of all our late Calamities: Guided by the Conduct, and animated by the native Courage of this your Majeſty's illuſtrious Off-ſpring, (who like our firſt Deliverer of that immortal Name, has once more extinguiſhed the vain Hopes of bigotted Tyranny and all its Abettors) your Majeſty's Arms are at length triumphant; Treaſon hides her hated Head, and ſcarcely finds a lurking Hole, even in the moſt deſolate and almoſt uninhabited Mountains of your Majeſty's remoter Dominions.

Thus, Royal Sir, are the united Schemes of France, Spain and Rome, to rob this envied Nation of her Civil and Religious Rights, in Exchange for Slavery and Superſtition, again defeated: And hence your Majeſty's Enemies may learn, that an Attempt to overthrow a Government, eſtabliſhed upon Revolution Principles, and founded in the Affections of a Loyal, Free and Brave People, is a Thing as chimerical and ridiculous, as it will by us ever be eſteem'd inſolent and abominable.

As the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Progeny is the only Security for our Properties, Religion, Laws and Liberties, which we have ſo fully enjoy'd under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government; and as Succeſs in this unnatural and horrid Rebellion, raiſed in our own Country by a Son of an abjur'd popiſh Pretender, muſt neceſſarily in its Event have produced a total Subverſion of theſe Bleſſings, and conſequently of every Thing worth our Care; ſo have we ever manifeſted an utter Abhorrence thereto, and been ready, with great Chearfulneſs, to ſacrifice our Fortunes, and even Lives, in Support of your Majeſty, and ſo good a Cauſe.

May this ſignal Victory of Culloden (which, with that of Dettingen, will ever ſhine in the Britiſh Annals) diſappoint the Projects of all our Enemies, and more firmly eſtabliſh your Majeſty's Throne: May it prove the Harbinger of an honourable and laſting Peace to your Majeſty and your Allies, and procure us a regular Succeſſion of Heroes in the Houſe of Hanover; who, after your Majeſty's great Example, ſhall ſupport the Glory, Liberty and Intereſt of Great Britain to the lateſt Poſterity, is the hearty Deſire and Prayers of us, who have Given it under our Common Seal this 29th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1746.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren and Capital Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Duncannon and John Stanhope, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the late Succeſs of your Majeſty's Forces, commanded by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, and animated by his great Prudence and Courage, againſt the moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion, deſigned to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, in order to introduce Popery and Arbitrary Power.

This Victory is never to be effaced from our Memories, which (through God's Providence) has wonderfully brought back to us the Fruition of thoſe real and ineſtimable Bleſſings of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, ſo much of late endangered by the Parricides and Invaders of your Majeſty's moſt lawful and rightful Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh and long abjured Pretender.

We

We of this Borough are the more ſenſible of this Bleſſing, becauſe the Enemies to your Majeſty's Kingdom and Government, made this Place their laſt Scene of Action, before their Return into Scotland; and inexpreſſible were the Horrors and Confuſion they brought with them, attended in many Inſtances with violent and open Acts of Rapine and Plunder.

May your Majeſty, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with a Continuance of Deſcendants from your Majeſty's own Royal Family, always reign and live triumphant and victorious over rebellious Subjects and their Abettors, and hand down to us and our Poſterity, the Bleſſings we now enjoy to the End of Time.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough the 2d Day of June, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Elgin, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir James Grant, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Elgin, having but lately recover'd our Liberty from the grievous Oppreſſion we groan'd under by the late unnatural Rebellion, humbly beg Leave at once to expreſs our juſt Abhorrence of that wicked and daring Attempt, in Favour of an abjur'd popiſh Pretender; and our Senſe of your Majeſty's Fatherly Care, in ſending his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to accompliſh our ſeaſonable Deliverance, and ſecure us againſt popiſh Slavery and Arbitrary Power.

Our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, ſhown on this Occaſion, drew upon us the diſtinguiſhing Hardſhips we met with, beyond moſt other Places, many of us being more than once impriſoned, the Community heavily aſſeſſed, and the Inhabitants and their private Effects were at the Mercy of the rebellious Army, for no leſs than eight Weeks; during which Time they ſtaid among us moſtly at the Charge of the Place.

We cannot but with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction congratulate your Majeſty on the late ſignal Victory obtained by his Royal Highneſs, over the Enemies of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; That your Majeſty's precious Life may be long preſerved, your Reign happy and proſperous, your Arms more and more ſucceſsful; That your Dominions may be for ever bleſ'd in having one of your Royal Progeny to ſv[illegible] Scepter over them for the Defence of [illegible] and Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe and that all your Majeſty's Subjects be ever ſenſible, that the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne and their own Intereſts are inſeparable, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects.

Signed at Elgin the 15th Day of May 1746 Years, in our Name and by our Appointment, by James Stephen, Pr.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Linlithgow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Mackye, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Linlithgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty upon the glorious and compleat Victory lately obtained by his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland over the Rebels, and to teſtify our Gratitude for ſending us ſo ſeaſonable a Deliverer, who (under God) has reſcued us out of the Hands of thoſe, who had riſen in Arms againſt your Majeſty and their Country.

We are deeply ſenſible of the many valuable Bleſſings we have enjoy'd under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and do deteſt the Treachery of thoſe who, by an unnatural Rebellion, endeavour'd to raiſe a Popiſh Pretender to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and to change Liberty and the Proteſtant Religion for Slavery and Popiſh Tyranny, and were not aſhamed to call in a Foreign Enemy to aſſiſt them in deſtroying their native Country.

It is our fervent Prayer to God Almighty, That your Majeſty may long reign over us, and that there may never be wanting one of your Illuſtrious Family to perpetuate the Bleſſings we enjoy enjoy under your Majeſty's mild Government, and to ſecure our Religion, Laws and Liberties to us and our lateſt Poſterity.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of Linlithgow, the Town Council,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

TO be ſilent when (all around us) your Majeſty's faithful Subjects are congratulating your Majeſty on the late moſt glorious and important Victory, obtained by his Royal Highneſs the Duke, (that Darling of the Soldiery, and Nation's Triumph,) over thoſe infatuated and deteſtable People, the Rebels, (incited and ſtirred up by the Artifice and Deluſions of the Common Enemy of the Britiſh Nation, to an Attempt not leſs vile and heinous than the total Subverſion of this Kingdom, and utter Extirpation of the Proteſtant Religion, our moſt valuable Bleſſings,) would beſpeak us inſenſible of that Happineſs we enjoy under the Tuition of the beſt of Kings.

Permit us therefore, in theſe our Sentiments, (moſt Excellent Prince) to join our Fellow Subjects with our joyful Congratulations of your Majeſty on that moſt happy Event; an Event, conſpicuouſly pointing out the merciful Providence of God to this Nation, in your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, (our great Deliverer from popiſh Tyranny and Arbitrary Power) and from which we hope a ſure and firm Eſtabliſhment of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign; and that through your Majeſty, and Royal Deſcendants, they will be tranſmitted down to us and our Poſterity to the remoteſt Time.

And may that watchful Eye of Providence, which favourably beholds the Actions of the Juſt, ever preſerve your Sacred Majeſty and Royal Family, and grant, that there may never be wanting a Prince, deſcendant of your Illuſtrious Houſe, to reign over this Nation, in the Hearts and Affections of a great and free People, are the Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.
